Description of Claiming Unit Functions

Public Health Administration is responsible for providing administrative and strategic support to the Public Health Division at HSA, ensuring that all programming within the division collectively upholds its mission to protect, promote and improve the health and well-being of all. Public Health Administration assesses the needs of the community and conducts program planning and evaluation to ensure everyone in the community, including those who are eligible for Medi-Cal, has adequate access to health and medical care. Additionally, the unit provides operational and budget direction, guidance and oversight for all Public Health programs.
